

8th Judicial District Court Jury General Information

- You will NOT have to come in every week. You will be informed when you are needed.
- If you have provided a cell phone number or email address in the juror portal and opted in to notifications, you will receive notifications to your preference of email or text.
- If you did not opt-in to email or texting, you will need to call-in or check our website every Friday after 5pm and listen to the jury message for instructions for the following week, please follow the instructions. It is good practice to call even if you have opted in to text or email notifications.
 - Dial 575-758-3173 and follow the prompts to reach the jury message
 - The Jurors needing to report is based on your term of service start date and sequence number. Example: Term began Dec XX, 2023- Sequence numbers 1-300 report Monday Feb 5, 2024
 - Be sure to cross-reference your sequence number with the sequence numbers called to avoid receiving a Failure to Appear status.
- If you have a schedule conflict (medical appointments, vacation plans, etc.) you can send an email to taosjury@nmcourts.gov and explain your situation. We will respond accordingly and issue temporary excusals as appropriate.
- If you need to be excused from jury duty, please send supporting documentation to taosjury@nmcourts.gov
